FEDERAL INCOME TAX SEASON NOW OPEN

And It Is In Order to Get Ready to Pay Uncle Sam

WHO NEEDS THE MONEY IN HIS BUSINESS

Collector Crutchley Who Is in Charge of the Collection in This District Has Sent Out the Necessary Forms and Blanks and It Is Now Up to the Taxpayer to Perform His Part of the Program.

Office of Collector of Internal Revenue, Kansas City, Mo., January 19, 1920.

The Federal Income Tax season opens today, with the distribution of the forms for personal returns from the offices of Collector of Internal Revenue George P. Crutchley.

From now until the bell rings on the night of March 15, the annual returns covering income for 1919 will be figured out and filed by citizens and residents, together with payments of tax due.

The burden of fulfilling this obligation is laid by law squarely on the shoulders of those who are American citizens or residents. Every person must determine for himself whether his net income for 1919, figured according to the Revenue Law, was sufficient in amount to require a return.

If a Single Person

If he is single, a return is required if his net income for 1919 was $1,000 or over. A widow or widower is classed as a single person. A man or woman living apart from his wife or husband is also classed as a single person.

If he was married and living with his wife on Dec. 31, a return is required if his net income for 1919 was $2,000 or over. In his net income he must include that of his wife and minor children, if any.

If a tax is due on his income, he must make payment with his return. This payment may be made in whole or in part of the tax due. At least one-quarter of the tax must accompany the return.

The filing and paying must be done before midnight of March 15, or he is classed as a delinquent and is subject to severe penalties.

The Two Forms

Two forms are being distributed for personal returns. Form 1040-A is intended for use by a person whose net income does not exceed $5,000. A larger form, 1040, is intended for each person having a net income in excess of $5,000. Both of these forms are now obtainable at Internal Revenue offices and at some banks and post offices.

It is urged by the Internal Revenue Bureau that taxpayers obtain their blanks at once. Failure to have a blank form at hand for an eleventh-hour return will not relieve a person of penalty for failure to comply with the law.

Each form contains instructions for preparing and filing the return, and these should be carefully read and strictly observed.

There is also provided a "work sheet" which should be used for making the original computations and which should be retained and preserved by the taxpayer.

If You Are In Doubt

Any person who is in doubt on points affecting his particular case, should bring such matters to the attention of the nearest deputy collector or revenue agent, who will render every necessary aid without charge.

When the return is completed, it should be properly executed and immediately filed. Any Internal Revenue officer will administer the necessary oath without charge.

NO MORE SOLDIERS

The Lincoln Bulletin Says That the People Want No More Military Men For President.

"Our friends, the Republicans, seem to be placing Major General Leonard A. Wood in the lead for landing their party's nomination for the presidency in 1920. It is our honest opinion that a man of the type of former president Taft or a man of some recent accomplishment to commend him, like Gov. Allen of Kansas, would be much harder to defeat at the polls than would General Wood. The people, including the soldier boys and their mothers, are sick and tired of military rule and do not want a military man for president, especially when his military record is all that commends him for the place. We do not belong to that class of partisans who wish to see the opposition put up their weakest man for this important place. If we did, Senator Lodge or some member of his blind, partisan following would be our preference. Much rather would we prefer that both parties nominate their best, most patriotic and humanitarian men for the office of president; and then, in the event of the election of either, our country would have naught to fear.—Lincoln Bulletin.

A TRIFLE MIXED

But They Answered the Purpose of Causing the Donors Some Anxious Hours.

NEW YORK.—Mr. Katzbaum confided to Mr. Bloomstein over their steins of beer today that his old friend, Mr. Waldberg, had thrown out this mortal coil. Mr. Katzbaum dropped tears into his foaming lager (they still sell it in New York). Mr. Bloomstein was properly sympathetic, but could not forbear showing Mr. Katzbaum an invitation to a wedding he had received.

They proceeded arm in arm to a florist's shop and bought two wreaths. Then they parted.

Mr. Katzbaum tendered his sympathies to the family of the deceased and presented his wreath, a large horse shoe, inscribed "A Pleasant Journey." A moment later he arose from the sidewalk where he had been kicked and surveyed several new scars and bruises.

Mr. Bloomstein was having troubles of his own. After kissing the bride, he presented his wreath.

A huge black ribbon bore the words: "Rest in Peace."

Walter Garton, arrested on a charge of stealing from the James store on the DeKalb road, was not in court Thursday when his case was called and his bond is now in jeopardy.
